

Age Level: 6-12 The Living Skills books are a series of 27 books by award-winning author Joy Berry. Like all of the Joy Berry books, this series stresses individual responsibility. The purpose is to help kids develop into self-sufficient, intelligent, independent thinking young adults. The books in the Joy Berry "classics" have sold over 85 million copies and helped hundreds of thousands of parents and kids over the past twenty years. There are special laws that apply to children, but there is very little information available about these laws. In Every Kid's Guide to Laws that Relate to Kids in the Community, Joy Berry discusses the laws specifically for children related where they live and play. Topics include: • what some legal words mean, • what torts are, • what crimes are, and • what laws protect children. The book features colorful cartoons on every page that both amuse and engage the reader. The 27 books in the Living Skills series are: Being Special Coping With Childhood Traumas Being a Communicator Responding to Danger Decision Making and Problem Solving Handling Family Arguments Family Rules and Responsibilities Handling Fights with Brothers or Sisters Good Manners Handling Disagreements Handling Feelings Understanding Human Rights Handling Illness Intelligent Spending The Juvenile Justice System Laws That Relate to School and Work Laws that Relate to Kids in the Community Laws that Relate to Parents and Children Making Friends Making and Managing Money Understanding Nightmares Nutrition and Health Care Overcoming Prejudice and Discrimination Understanding Parents Thinking and Learning Using Time Wisely Watching TV Intelligently
