A rebellious archaeologist, a manipulative mortal god, and an ancient hero who cheated the passage of time. They're all after the same thing, but so is everyone else in the universe. Is an old sword really worth starting a war over? That depends on whether or not the legends are true. Could the Azure Fateblade really contain the fate of the universe, or is this the con of the millennium? If you could hold the fate of the universe in your hands, would you be able to trust somebody else with it? The answers to these questions could tear the world apart, and so could the people answering them.
