

Woodworking Together: Projects for Kids and Their Families

Woodworking Together aims to encourage the kind of interaction with adults so important to a child's development, providing an assortment of fun and useful projects designed especially to enhance a family's time together. Organized to appeal to specific age groups and skill levels, projects include a pair of stilts, toy chest, woodpecker door knocker, bucking bronco whirligig, picture frame, toboggan, jewelry box and inlay jewelry. Safety is emphasized throughout, with explicit tips at the beginning of each project.
