

Yemen (Major Muslim Nations)

Located at the southern tip of Saudi Arabia along the Gulf of Aden, Yemen was once a major seaport. But the British and other powers to the north made their own claims on trade in the region and Yemen lost control of its ports. Readers will learn about the religious and political strife in the country, and how Yemen is trying to compete with the oil-rich states of the Persian Gulf. Includes full-color photographs and illustrations, chronology, glossary, further reading, Internet resources, and index. 120pages.
